Goal Achievement | Goal Unmet

A Few Marketing Strategies

- The phone will not ring because you’re a HUBZone firm.
- Research the Market.
  - Which agencies buy what you sell?
  - Which are behind on their HUBZone numbers?
  - Which are HUBZone-friendly?
  - Develop relationships: make visits & calls.
  - Use agency small business offices (OSDBU).
- Respond to Sources Sought notices.
  - Can take a lot of staff resources but not a waste of time.
  - HUBZone Rule of Two. (In real life, it’s more like 6, 8, or 12.)
  - Join a group to maximize success to generate HUBZone set-asides.
- Pursue Simplified Acquisitions. (FAR Part 13)
  - Build your performance history with direct awards. Quotes not proposals.
  - Micro-Purchase & Sole Source Awards are made for small businesses.
  - FBO ‘Combined Synopsis/Solicitation’ means time is short.
  - Make the calendar your ally. The best time to pursue is the 4th quarter, followed by the 1st quarter.
  - SA spending is increasing ($20B in FY15). [GSA Schedule spending has plateaued.]
  - HUBZone status is your trump card.
- Build relationships with Primes. Most need HUBZone subcontractors.
Policy Priorities

- Provide More Business Certainty
  - Extend Redesignation Period from 3 to 7 Years
  - Encourage Investment in Principal Offices
  - Simplify Residency Requirement
  - Streamline Certification Process

Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned and HUBZone-certified Veterans Trading Company, which actually served as the prime contractor (with Lockheed Martin as the subcontractor) on a $10.8 million project, has created six new jobs in Ocala, Florida.

The project would not have developed without the firm's HUBZone certification and has led to additional business opportunities with Lockheed and other federal prime contractors.
The Town of Leesburg has leveraged its HUBZone areas to serve as incubators for small companies.

More than 40 companies are participating in the program - and 32 of them are start-ups. More than 20 of them have obtained their HUBZone certification.

And they have created more than 160 new jobs for the town.
